PLACES YOU MUST VISIT

HISTORY OF FORTS In Goa

Chapora Fort, located in Bardez, Goa, rises high above the Chapora River. The site was the location of a fort built by Muslim ruler Adil Shah called Shahpura, whose name the Portuguese altered to Chapora.

TURTLE HATCHLINGS

The tranquil Morjim Beach is known for its unique Olive Ridley turtle nesting site that is walking distance from DIWA HOMES. Witness the wonders of nature as the baby turtles hatch and find their way into the Arabian Sea.

RIDE THE WAVES

Acclaimed as one of the most exuberant and exhilarating water sports, discover the thrill of surfboarding at Morjim beach. Make the most of surfboard rentals, lessons by experienced instructors and master the art of surfing.

FOOD ONE MUST TRY

The staple food of Goa is rice and fish curry. Most of the dishes incorporate coconuts, rice, fish, pork, meat and local spices like kokum. The cuisine of Goa is mostly dominated by seafood which includes shark, tuna, Pomfret, and mackerel fish.

Please Note : Ask you Manager at the villa for further details on visiting Local Vibes of Goa. He will happy to help you.

THANK YOU

LOOKING FORWARD TO HOST YOU
